Tarena International, Inc. Signs Cooperation Agreement with Renmin University, School of Continuing Education to Offer Joint-Major Programs

BEIJING, May 8, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Tarena International, Inc. (NASDAQ: TEDU) ("Tarena" or the "Company"), a leading provider of professional education services in China, today announced that it has signed a cooperation agreement with Renmin University, School of Continuing Education ("RUSCE"), to offer joint-major programs in digital art, JAVA, front-end web development and Android.

Pursuant to the cooperation agreement, RUSCE will offer their students the option to enroll in joint-major programs with Tarena and include Tarena's selected courses in their standard curriculum. Moreover, students at Tarena can also enroll in joint-major programs offered by RUSCE and can earn up to 24 academic credits toward these programs upon the completion of the Tarena courses without further exam requirements. 24 academic credits represent 30% of the total academic credit requirement for such programs. Tarena students are eligible to receive graduation certificates from RUSCE after finishing the remaining courses of these joint-major programs, and are eligible for bachelor's degree upon the passing of the relevant thesis and examination requirements of RUSCE. Furthermore, Tarena and RUSCE also forged a cooperative relationship in student recruitment.

"Renmin University is a top university in China. Today's announcement further endorses Tarena's credibility in and dedication to provide top notch professional education services," said Mr. Shaoyun Han, founder, CEO and chairman of Tarena. "This landmark partnership with RUSCE enhances our commitment to deliver the best professional training services to our students. Students at Tarena not only can learn practical skills but also earn college degree, which will open up even more opportunities for them in the job market. As the Chinese government continues to encourage higher education institutions in China to incorporate practical training courses into their curricula, Tarena is well positioned to explore and establish more in-depth partnerships with universities and colleges."
