Tarena International, Inc. Signs Strategic Partnership Agreement with Oracle

BEIJING, Aug. 10, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Tarena International, Inc. (NASDAQ: TEDU) ("Tarena" or the "Company"), a leading provider of professional education services in China, today announced that it has signed a strategic partnership agreement with Oracle (China) Software Systems Co., Ltd. ("Oracle") and will become Oracle's strategic partner to provide a wide range of education services to universities, governmental agencies and individuals in China.

Pursuant to the partnership agreement, Tarena will become an official partner of Oracle in China to provide Java training and certification services to college students, graduates and other individuals. Tarena will integrate Oracle's latest technology and original learning materials into Tarena's Java course curriculum, and Tarena graduates can be awarded the official international certificates from Oracle upon passing the relevant examinations. Tarena and Oracle will also work together to research and develop an integrated solution for university curriculum reform and major design in software engineering, as well as providing relevant governmental personnel training services.

"Oracle is the world's authority in Java language standardization and certification," said Shaoyun Han, Founder, CEO and Chairman of Tarena. "Through our strategic partnership with Oracle, we will continue to refine and optimize our Java course to provide the best in class Java training to our students who can in turn receive the official validation from the global leader to help achieve better employment prospects and career development."

"Oracle is very pleased to cooperate with Tarena, a leader in China with high quality IT education and respected brand," said Minxiong He, President of Oracle University China. "Through the official close cooperation between the two partners, I hope that Oracle can help further enhance Tarena students' technical skills and benefit many more Chinese IT companies."
